IT'S OUR TIME

Improvisation theater can energize rich experiences that bring people together and build strong, supportive connections.

This is an invitation for colleagues to meet each other in a challenging yet playful environment which will create collaboration and trust in the group.

WORKSHOP FOCUS

- How do we become team players and not soloists?
- How do we really listen and build on each other's ideas?
- How do we find our own spontaneous creativity and work from a place of personal freedom?
- How do we trust the moment and our partners to be an endless source of inspiration?
- When is it time to lead and when is it time to follow and collaborate?

WHAT IS YOUR BENEFIT?

- your team will turn into an ensemble
- your communication skills with colleagues and clients will become more personal and effective
- your team members will work from a place of confidence, trust and creativity
